(To be written on this margin.)

Office of the Dewan of Mysore.

NOTE.

Dated 1st May *191*5.

It has come to my notice that sometimes officers time their relinquishment of an office so as to be able to enjoy the benefits of both the joining time admissible under the Service Regulations and also of public holidays which may be near at hand.

When holidays intervene and joining time also falls in simultaneously, I feel that no officer of Government should be allowed the benefit of both the concessions without the special sanction of Government.

I shall be glad if the Secretary, General and Revenue Departments, will, in consultation with the Financial Secretary, kindly send up suitable proposals in the matter.

What the Dewan Saheb refers to is occasional abuse by officers of Art 104 M.S.R. This can be remedied by adding a note to Art 104 M.S.R. thus:

Note - ~~Retardation of a~~ long holiday, ~~lasting~~ of more than three days' duration or any part of such holiday can not be ~~allowed to be~~ added to joining time by exclusion from calculation under this article. M 5/5

Suggested addition to article 104 of the Mysore Service Regulations.

1 What the Dewan Saheb refers to is occasional abuse by officers of art. 104 M.S.R. This can be remidied by adding a note to art. 104 M.S.R. thus:-

Note- Long holidays of more than three days' duration or any part of such holidays cannot be added to joining time by exclusion from calculation under this article.

(Dewan)

Personally, I have found the period of joining time admissible to be too excessive for my requirements. But I know cases in which officers have visited foreign places during joining time.

I would so further than the Fin Secy & ~~Secretary~~ omit " Sundays & other holidays not actually spent in travelling are not included in the calculation " from Art. 104.

11 Would it not be sufficient to add ~~Sund~~ "not exceeding 3 days in all" after "holidays" in line 3 of the article? I would not go further than the H. Secy.

Submitted to His Highness.

Under Article 104, Mysore Service Regulations an officer on transfer is allowed to add to his joining time, Sundays and other public holidays not actually spent in travelling. This provision is sometimes taken advantage of, to gain for officers relinquising charge of their appointments the benefi of public holidays, which joined to the period allowe by Mysore Service Regulations, would be an unnecessar ly long period of joining time. When holidays inter vene and joining time also falls in simultaneously, no officer of Government should be allowed the benefit of both the concessions without the special sanction of Government. The Dewan invited suitable proposals in the matter from the General Secretary in consultation with the Financial Secretary.

> "Long holidays of more than 3 days duration or any part of such holidays cannot be added to joining time by exclusion from calculation under this Article".

3. The General Secretary goes further than the Financial Secretary and would not allow any Sundays or holidays being added and suggests the omission of the following words in Article 104:-

4. I am of opinion that we need not go further than the Financial Secretary and consider that it would be sufficient if Article 104 Mysore Service Regulations is amended by the addition of the words "not exceeding 3 days in all" after "holidays" in line 3.

5. The Extraordinary Member and the Second Member agree to the Financial Secretary's suggestion.

6. The addition to Article 104 suggested by me serves the same purpose as that proposed by the Financial Secretary and is more simple and may be graciously approved. The article as amended would run as follows:

"104. In cases involving a change of station, joining time is calculated as follows, subject to a maximum of thirty days; Sundays and other holidays not exceeding three days in all not actually spent in travelling are not included in the calculation :-

Six days for preparation; and, in addition thereto,-

For the portion of the journey which the officer travels or might travel -	A day for eac
By railway	200 miles.
In any other way...	15 miles.

An extra day is allowed for any fraction of distance over that prescribed
